

Overview

Since the outbreak of conflict between the Sudanese Armed Forces (SAF) and the Rapid Support Forces (RSF) in Khartoum-Sudan, clashes further spread to other States within the country. As of 15 December 2023, over 370,000 individuals had crossed into South Sudan through Wunthow (Juda) point of entry in Renk. The majority are South Sudanese (70.44%), followed by Sudanese (13.35%) and other nationalities (16.21%). The population of Renk TC was 23,790 individuals (average of 3,965 households) during the reporting period.

On 15 December 2023, the IOM's Displacement Tracking Matrix (DTM) in collaboration with ACTED, ADRA, and GOAL conducted a rapid intention survey in Renk TC and its adjacent area to understand the return intentions of the population, preferred destinations of return as well as reasons for choosing to remain in the transit center.
