

This information was collected following various armed attacks that occurred in several neighborhoods of the capital since 5 February, in the municipalities of Carrefour, Cité Soleil and Tabarre. This report is an update of the one published on 11 February and other updates will be published depending on the evolution of displacement. A total of 9,901 people have been displaced following these attacks, including 7,261 following attacks in neighborhoods bordering the municipalities of Cité Soleil and Tabarre as well as 2,640 following those in the municipality of Carrefour. Most of these people (90%) took refuge in areas located in the West district and the rest left for provinces, notably towards Nippes (5%) and Center (3%). The majority (63%) took refuge with host families and 37% in 13 sites (all located in the Port-au-Prince Metropolitan Area, in the West district), including 3 sites which already existed before these incidents and 10 newly created.
