

1,260
Individuals affected

201
Damaged Shelters

Trigger:

Picture showing damaged shelters after the fire outbreak © IOM 2024

Overview

On 04 February 2024, a fire broke out in Government Girls Secondary School Camp, Mafa, Mafa Local Government Area (LGA) in Borno State. The fire damaged and destroyed shelters and belongings of several IDP household. There were no reported injuries or fatalities.

The fire impacted 12 emergency shelters, affecting 1,260 individuals in 201 households. The affected individuals included 712 children, 622 women and 638 men.

Needs***

Of all the needs identified, shelter is the most prevalent. Other needs included NFI (non-food items).

*Multiple Choices Selected

Fig. 1. Most needed assistance

Map 1. Map showing locations affected by the fire outbreak

This map is for illustration purposes only. The boundaries and names shown, and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the International Organization for Migration.

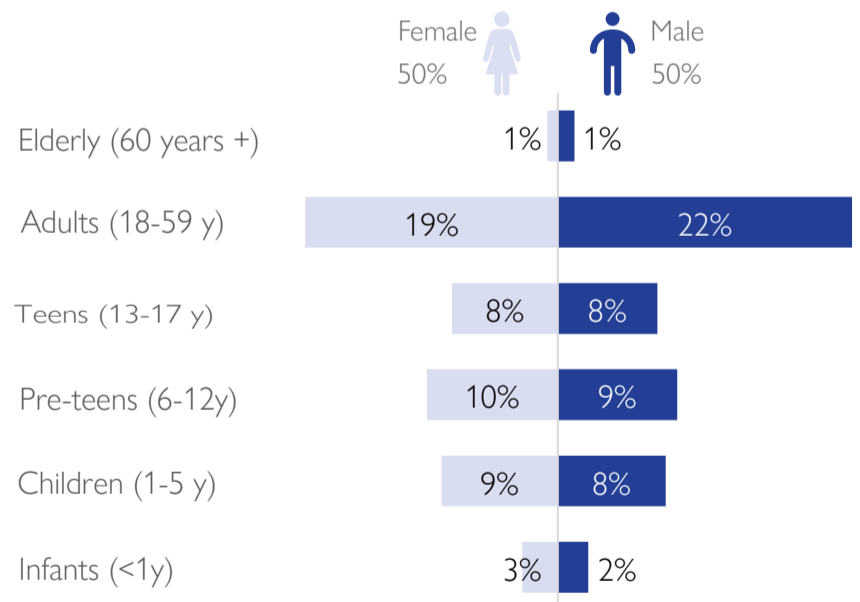

Fig. 2. Gender breakdown of affected population

Table 1. Affected individuals and LGA

LGA	Ward	Site Name	Number of Affected households	Number of Affected individuals				Number of damaged shelters
				Men	Women	Total	Children
Mafa	Mafa	Government Girls' Secondary School Camp	201	638	622	1260	712	201
Total			201	638	622	1,260	712	201