

Disclaimer: Only intended destinations with more than 100 individuals reported are included in the map.

INTENDED OUTGOING DESTINATIONS

A total of 23,666 outgoing movements were observed, out of which 12,138 (51.3%) were heading to Saudi Arabia, 4,621 (19.5%) were going to Kenya, 1,906 (8.1%) to Djibouti, 1,491 (6.3%) to South Africa, 1,045 (4.4%) to Somalia, 678 (2.9%) to Yemen and 623 (2.6%) to Sudan, while remaining movements were heading to other Southern African, Middle Eastern, North American and European countries. As a note, figures for Yemen and Saudi Arabia should be interpreted jointly, as movements to Saudi Arabia often pass through Yemen. 96.3% of outgoing movements reported were by Ethiopian nationals.

At the same time, 11,420 incoming movements were observed, out of which 6,513 (57.1%) originated from Sudan, while 1,747 (15.3%) came from Djibouti, 1,589 (13.9%) from Kenya, 1,407 (12.3%) from Somalia, and 164 (1.4%) from Yemen, Uganda and South Sudan.

Returning Ethiopians departed from Sudan (28.1%), Djibouti (25.4%), Kenya (23.4%), Somalia (20.7%), Yemen (2.1%), Uganda (0.2%) and South Sudan (0.1%).