

CONTEXT

Due to the latest military operations in Syria, DTM Iraq has launched an emergency tracking tool to monitor potential population flow coming through pre-selected border points. Only people being displaced by the conflict will be reported in this update and usual border activities and crossings will not be covered.

The following border points are being monitored:

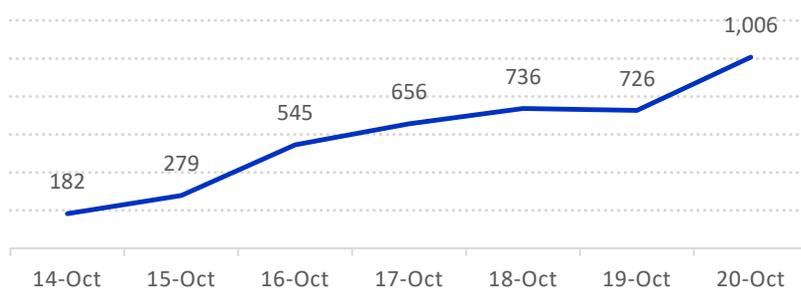

- Al-Fao and Rabi'a border points in Ninewa
- Fishkhabour border point in Dahuk
- Informal crossing points nearby Sahela and Alwaleed villages in Ninewa under Kurdish control
- Ibrahim Al-Khalil border point between Turkey and Iraq in Dahuk

MONITORED ENTRY POINTS

This map is for illustrative purposes and does not imply judgment of the legal status of a territory, nor official recognition or acceptance of these boundaries by IOM.

DAILY ARRIVALS TRACKING

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- 2,468 individuals have crossed through the informal points nearby Sahela and Alwaleed villages from Oct. 18 to 20. This brings the total of individuals having crossed these points in the last 7 days to 4,130.
- All arrivals were transported to Bardarash Camp by bus, 599 from Sahela and 1,869 from Alwaleed.

NEW ARRIVALS 18-20 OCT.

2,468

TOTAL DISPLACED POPULATION

4,130

ENTRY POINTS USED

Sahela/Alwaleed

Co-Funded by the European Union

© 2019 International Organization for Migration (IOM)

The information in this report is the result of data collected by IOM field teams and complements information provided by governmental and other entities in Iraq. IOM Iraq endeavors to keep this information as up to date and accurate as possible, but makes no claim—expressed or implied—on the completeness, accuracy and suitability of the information provided through this report. Names and boundaries on DTM information products do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by IOM.

